

3rd December 2020, 10:00-16:00, online (livestream)

Moderator Prof. dr. Lex Bouter, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Amsterdam UMC

Program

- 10:00-10:10 Welcome
- 10:10-10:50 Prof. dr. Herman Paul, Universiteit Leiden
Virtues and Vices in 21st-Century Academia: Historical and Research Ethical Perspectives
- 10:50-11:30 Tamarinde Haven, PhD Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
Towards a responsible research climate: Findings from academics in Amsterdam.
- 11:30-12:10 Krishma Labib, PhD Amsterdam UMC
Research integrity education and training at research institutions - Insights from a focus group study.
- 12:10-12:40 lunchbreak (offline)
- 12:40-13:40 Sessions round 1
A: Science in a pandemic: is open science helping or hurting integrity of research? Gowri Gopalakrishna, postdoc Amsterdam UMC
B: The Myth of Null Hypothesis Significance Testing -Jonáh Stunt, postdoc Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
- 13:40-14:40 Sessions round 2
A: Responsible open science -unintended result of plan S. -Thed van Leeuwen, Associate Professor Universiteit Leiden
B: Usefulness of RCT's -Janneke van 't Hooft, PhD Amsterdam UMC
- 14:40-14:50 Short break (offline)
- 14:50-15:30 Pieter Huistra, Associate Professor Universiteit Utrecht
Are replication studies in the humanities useful?
- 15:30-16:10 Rik Peels, Associate Professor Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
Progress in the Humanities.
- 16:10 Closing Remarks