

NRIN Symposium Research symposium

3rd December 2020, 10:00-16:20, online (livestream)

Moderator Prof. dr. Lex Bouter, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Amsterdam UMC

Program

10:00-10:10	Welcome
10:10-10:50	Prof. dr. Herman Paul, Universiteit Leiden Virtues and Vices in 21st-Century Academia: Historical and Research Ethical Perspectives
10:50-11:30	Tamarinde Haven, PhD Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam Towards a responsible research climate: Findings from academics in Amsterdam.
11:30-12:10	Krishma Labib, PhD Amsterdam UMC Research integrity education and training at research institutions - Insights from a focus group study.
12:10-12:40	Lunchbreak (offline)
12:40-13:40	Sessions round 1 A: Science in a pandemic: is open science helping or hurting integrity of research? -Gowri Gopalakrishna, postdoc Amsterdam UMC B: The Myth of Null Hypothesis Significance Testing -Jonáh Stunt, postdoc Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
13:40-13:45	Short break (offline)
13:45-14:45	Sessions round 2 A: Responsible open science -unintended result of plan S. -Thed van Leeuwen, Associate Professor Universiteit Leiden B: Usefulness of RCT's -Janneke van 't Hooft, PhD Amsterdam UMC
14:45-14:55	Short break (offline)
14:55-15:35	Pieter Huistra, Associate Professor Universiteit Utrecht Are replication studies in the humanities useful?
15:35-16:15	Rik Peels, Associate Professor Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam Progress in the Humanities.
16:15	Closing Remarks