

Invitation Nethics/NRIN interactive symposium 'Research ethics across scientific disciplines'. 14 March 2024, Utrecht

Members and affiliates of ethics review boards are cordially invited to attend the interactive symposium 'Research ethics across scientific disciplines'.

- Aim: to bring together research ethics committees across non-medical scientific disciplines (nWMO)
- When: Thursday March 14th, 12:30 – 17:00
- Where: Utrecht Science park University library, Booth hall.

Program

- ❖ 12:30 Reception with light lunch
- ❖ 13:00 – 13.30 Introductions
  - Welcome
  - Ethics review in the social sciences by Nethics – Joke Baas, Nethics
  - Ethics review in the Humanities – Teun Dekker, UM
  - Introduction of the program
- ❖ 13:30 Break including preparing for group discussions
- ❖ 13:45 – 14.15 Key issues in research ethics – discussion in groups
  - Aim: Make an inventory of the key issues across disciplines
- ❖ 14:15 – 15:15 Issues in ethics review, discussion of key issues part 1
  - Key issue 1 – Different forms of consent (René Bekkers – VU / Daniël Lakens – TU/e)
  - Key issue 2 – Vulnerability of research participants and proportionality of ethical review (Jacqueline Schenk – EUR / tba)
- ❖ 15:15 Break
- ❖ 15:30 – 16:00 Issues in ethics review, discussion of key issues part 2
  - Key issue 3 – Research ethics versus integrity – responsibility of the ethics committee and the researcher (Marcel Verweij – UU / Jaap Bos - UU)
- ❖ 16:00 – 16:30 Panel discussion with audience
- ❖ 16:30 – 16:45 Closing with look ahead
- ❖ The program is followed by drinks in the Foyer